ANOTHER CLOUD ON THE HORIZON

Germany and Holland Mass Troops on Dutch-Belgian Frontier

STARTLING RUMORS

Dutch Regular Army of 350,000 Said to be Fully Armed and Prepared For Any Eventuality.

London, April 8.—Startling reports that both Germany and Holland were quietly massing troops along the Dutch-Belgian frontier, coupled with almost incredible rumors that Germany was about to invade Holland, reached London today from English sources at the Hague, Amsterdam and other Dutch cities.

For obvious reasons the London papers laid great stress upon these reports.

Several Amsterdam dispatches to London news agencies report the Germans massing landstrum regiments and cavalry along the Belgian Dutch border.

One dispatch reported the Kaiser's troops were intrenching on a line leading northward from Antwerp, and that part of the guns of Antwerp had been dismantled and transported to strategic positions near the frontier of Holland.

From The Hague came other advices from English sources saying that for the past fortnight southern posts near Belgium have been quietly be enforced with men and artillery The Dutch regular army of 350,00 was reported to be fully armed and prepared for any eventuality.

Among diplomats it is said that Holland has requested Germany for a full explanation of the recent seizure of Dutch boats bound for England with food cargoes. The Netherlands government is awaiting an answer to this note.

FATHER'S MEDICINE KILLS.

Two Children Eat it And Doctor Saves Only the Younger.

Winchester, Va., April 8.—Before Dr. Asbury C. Swimley, racing with death in his automobile, could reach the home of a boy who had swallowed tablets containing strychnine, the child died, but a little brother, a year younger, was saved by the physician just in the nick of time. The dead child was Elymer, 4-year-old son of George Carper, of near Chambersville. The other boy who had taken the poison and whose life was saved, is Russell, 3 years old.

The father of the children, who has been ill of heart trouble, was brought to the Memorial Hospital Monday night by Dr. Swimley and is now undergoing treatment here. The doctor had prescribed medicine, which contained strychnine, for him and had left it in the care of Mrs. Carper, cautioning her to either destroy or bring it with her when she accompanied her husband to the hospital. The tablets were put on top of a dresser and Mrs. Carper, worrying over her husband's condition, forgot them. The children found them and thought they were candy.

New York, April 8.—Since the first of the year fifty murders have been committed in New York. The highest record is five in one day—last Saturday.

The police have made arrests in twenty six cases, and they are now pending, while in four other cases the prisoners were discharged. In four the murderers committed suicide, and in one, a burglar shot a policeman, the officer was exonerated.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The London Daily Mail's Rotterdam correspondent says that acting in sympathy with the Dutch antiwar council, an international peace committee has been formed at The Hague with a membership which includes one delegate from every country. The United States is to be represented by Henry Van Dyke, the American minister, who will address the first meeting.

Official announcement that Victoriano Huerta, late Mexican dictator, was on his way from Spain to the United States was received at the State Department yesterday from the American consul at Seville. Huerta recently sailed on the steamer Antonio Lopez, due to arrive at New York on Saturday.

Secretary Bryan made public last night a letetr he had written to L. W. Kennington, Democratic national committeehan from Iowa, expressing the hope that the Democrats of Iowa would take a stand for prohibition and vote against officials who could be controlled by the liquor interests. Mr. Bryan said he hoped to see the Democratic party take the prohibition side whatever state the issue was raised, and that if the liquor interests insisted upon making an issue in the selection of a national committeeman the people opposed to the liquor traffic could not afford to ignore it.

Accused of turning traitor against the "Night Riders" of which he was formerly a member, Garo Warders was chased to his cabin, near Hopkinsville, Ky., where a battle took place Tuesday night. Two of the attacking force were killed by Warders.

Enfeebled and almost blind Francis Trogdon, of Jonesboro, N. C., while walking down Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, yesterday noon on his way to an eye specialist was approached by two men, who asked him to change a $50 bill. Trogdon reached into his pocket, adjusted his spectacles, and counted the bills. He had finished counting them, they totaled $48, when one of the men lunged forward and grabbed the roll. Both sped away with the money in their possession.

FELLS A TAUBE

Pegoud, the French Aviator, Brings Down the German and Captures the Pilot

Paris, April 8.—Another daring exploit has been added to the long list of those successfully carried out by Adolphe Pegoud, the famous French aviator, who is reported to have attacked and brought down a German Taube near Saint Menehoula while he was alone on patrol duty April 2.

The report of the incident says that when Pegoud saw the German approaching he flew rapidly toward the hostile air craft and sent it to earth with a few well placed shots. Pegoud then landed beside the Taube and took prisoner the German pilot and observer, neither of whom was injured.

Earlier in the same day Pegoud is reported to have driven off three other German aeroplanes, one of which had dropped nine bombs on a railroad station.

Pegoud, who first gained fame in 1913 as the originator of the feat of flying upside down in an aeroplane, was awarded the French military medal early in March for services rendered the army during the war.

Richmond, Va., April 8.—Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern Railway, has presented to the State gallery here an impressive portrait of Sir William Berkeley, colonial governor of Virginia.

Only three portraits of the famous Berkeley are in existence—the original, painted by Lely, owned by Mrs. Marguerite Dupont Lee, of Washington, D. C.; a copy of the original, owned by Thomas F. Ryan, and hung in his Virginia country house, and this Harrison copy, a replica of the Ryan one.

INTERNMENT OF GERMAN CRUISER

Captain Thierichens Abandons Plan to Dash to Open Sea

WILL BE DISMANTLED

Printz Eitel Friederich Will Remain at Portsmouth Navy Yard Under Guard During the War.

Washington, April 8.—The German converted cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich made her last cruise of the war today when she was sent from her dock at Newport News, following her interment last night, to the Norfolk navy yard.

The Eitel had been at her Newport News dock since March 10, the day she limped into port, badly crippled, and asked for repairs.

Official Washington generally expressed the conviction today that Captain Thierichens, of the Eitel, had "kept up the bluff" to the very last, which is just one way of expressing the opinion that the Eitel never expected to leave port until the end of the war and that her real purpose in along was to intern.

The Eitel's commander kept up his demonstration to the very last moment, in the effort to hold the British and French war vessels to the task of capturing him, thus depriving the allies of the service of these vessels elsewhere.

Newport News, Va., April 8.—Commander Max Thierichens, of the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, asked the United States government through port authorities here last night to intern his ship and crew for the war.

Up to the last moment the German skipper kept up the appearance of being ready for a dash to sea, and when the time for decision finally came he explained that failure of expected relief" to arrive had made it necessary to intern rather than "deliver crew and ship to fruitless and certain destruction by British and French warships waiting off the Virginia capes."

Today the commerce raider made her last cruise of the war. She was taken to the Norfolk Navy Yard, across Hampton Roads from the shipyard where she has been laid up since March 10.

The German captain delivered his announcement in writing when Collector Hamilton boarded the Eitel Friedrich with an imperative notice from the Washington government that the time for his stay in this port would expire at midnight tonight, and that he must leave American waters by 4 o'clock on the morning of April 8. Before the customs collector could deliver the message, Commander Thierichens handed to him the written announcement of his decision.

Determination of the German commander to intern immediately operated to lift the American embargo against merchant ships of allied European nations leaving this port. More than a score of British merchant vessels which had been cleared, but held up, were immediately permitted to leave port, and customs houses at Newport News and Norfolk were kept open until 10:30 o'clock last night issuing clearances.

Actual internment of the Prinz Eitel, it was arranged in conferences between Rear Admiral Beatty, commandant of the Norfolk navy yard, Rear Admiral Helm, of the battleship Alabama, and Collector Hamilton, would be accomplished today. The breechblocks of her guns will be removed and connecting rod of her engines detached.

MARRIAGE NOTICE.

ITALY'S MOVEMENTS

Fleet Leaves Suddenly—Report that Agreement has Been Reached With Austria

On the Italian Frontier, April 8—The warships of the Italian fleet departed suddenly on Monday from the Mediterraneon naval station at Spezia, Gaeta and Maddalena Island. They concentrated at Augusta, Sicily and at Taranto. They are thus within a few hours of the Adriatic.

Italy now has the finest fleet in her history. It is headed by several new dreadnaughts.

The future movements of the fleet are veiled with absolutely secrecy. It is asserted that only the king and one or two of the highest government officials are acquainted with the plans decided upon.

Paris, April 8—Private advices have been received here from trustworthy sources to the effect that Italy and Austria have reached an agreement which will satisfy the aspirations of the Italian people for an enlargement of the national boundaries and preclude all possibility of armed intervention by Italy on the side of the allies.

The advice which have just come to hand states that the dual monarchy has consented to the cession of the Trentino. It is added that the necessary documents have been draw drawn up and signed.

This news bears out the reports from Geneva recently that the Trentino, geographically and historically a part of the Italian peninsula, was to be handed over to Italy, but is to be occupied by Italian troops only at the end of the great war.

Austria has interposed this stipulation so as to be certain that Italy will maintain her neutrality, no matter what future events may change the present situation.

London, April 8—This is a story that is knocked about Germany and is brought back to London by almost every returning American:

The King of Italy, says the German story, once owned $25,000,000 worth of steel stock. The Emperor of Germany heard of the thrifty monarch's purchase of this stock and sent word to him that Krupp's stock was better than that American venture. The Krupp stock would pay three times as much in dividends, said the kaiser, as steel.

The King of Italy, the German story goes, took the kaiser's advice, and now if the Berlin story is true, holds $25,000,000 worth of stock in Krupp's cannon factory.

And, concludes the Germans, if Italy goes to war with Germany the Krupp stock held by the King of Italy will be canceled. Or, at least, the King of Italy has good reason to believe it will be.

New York, April 8—A Paris cable to the New York American says:

What the kaiser thinks about Italy is reflected in the following statement he recently made to officers in the Austrian emperor's suite:

"Even if we are crushed, we shall never tire of telling our children in Austria, as well as in Germany, that our downfall was due to Italy. If it takes us ten or even twenty years, we will win back whatever we give Italy now and also seize Venice as interest."

This disclosure was made by an Austrian officer who heard the kaiser's vow.

SUFFOLK CHOSES BOY MAYOR

Youngest of Three Candidates is Named by Democrats.

Norfolk, Va., April 8—M. E. Stallings, probably the youngest candidate that ever aspired for the office was nominated Mayor of Suffolk Tuesday in a Democratic primary. There were three candidates in the race, but Stallings won by a plurality of 107.

Stallings is a young lawyer, who has made quite a record as a campaigner. He managed his own campaign and he made such frank talks that he won many votes. He is a graduate of the Washington and Lee University and of the Suffork High School.

RUSSIAN DRIVE INTO HUNGARY

Pouring Over Carpathian Summits and on to Southern Slopes

PUSHING BACK ENEMY

Desultory Fighting in Poland Crowding Germans Toward East Prussia—Tentons in Tight Place

Petrograd, April 8—German reinforcements have temporarily halted the Russian forward movement near the Lupkow pass, it was semi-officially admitted today, but the Slav forces southeast of Smolnik continue a successful offensive toward the Uszok pass.

The Russian forces are being redistributed to meet the strengthened armies of the enemy near Vidony.

Petrograd, April 8—Russian armies in the Carpathians are now well advanced upon the southern slopes of the great mountain barrier of Hungary. Even the Austrian official reports after disguising the progress of Russian arms for two months, at length have been compelled to admit some degree of success on the part of Russians, and their own failure to stay the tide of invasion on the plains of Hungary.

In the mountain warfare on a front exceeding 100 miles, it has always been possible to pick out odd spots where perhaps a score of men gained a little success, if at the same time other spots where thousands and even tens of thousands of men engaged are ignored because success belonged to the enemy and not their own men.

A remarkable false picture can be drawn of the general progress of the war on this front. This is the manner in which Austria, imitating the German bulletins, proceeded for a long time past. The truth can now no longer be concealed, as any day may bring Russia'c cavalry sweeping across the rich plains of Hungary.

As the Austrians relate events of the past fortnight one would suppose they were merely taking up stronger positions a few miles to the rear on a narrow section of the front. The fact is that the Austrians are in retreat, being hard pressed by continually increasing forces of Russians over a front between 50 and 70 miles and already have retreated more than 16 miles as the crow flies.

In the theatre of war operations like that of the Carpathians, 16 miles of retreat represents a loss equivalent to 100 miles retreat in our level country.

On the Prussian frontier front the Germans are still fighting isolated little battles and are still unable to extricate themselves from an unpleasant position into which they advanced so gaily in assurance of a splendid triumph which had been fully prepared by organized treachery and espionage. On Monday the Russian horse artillery got behind the German line of retreat toward Myschinetz and destroyed the bridge over the Rozoga that carried a high road to the frontier, a mile or two from the village of Vakh.

Altogether the German remnants of the vainglorious raid are now in an uncommonly tight corner, being unable to move either forward or backward, according to military rule, their choice being between a total loss and a prolonged hopeless struggle which must end in a break and run for it to the frontier, which at different parts of this front is five to 15 miles distant, mostly with impracticable marshes and without roads for retreat.

FLIM-FLAMMED BY NEGRO

Man of South Boston Falls for Confederate Bill

Richmond, Va., April 8—"Mister, I'll give you $50 if you'll get this $100 bill changed for me," said a brown-skinned negro to Willis Howden of South Boston, at the Main Street Depot yesterday afternoon.

Howden assured the negro that he was perfectly willing to make $50 in such an easy way.

"Have you all got any security I can hold while you are going to have my bill changed," inquired the negro.

Howden had, and said so. Furthermore, he pulled his wallet from his pocket and exhibited it. It war rather a fat wallet, for even $11 in $1 bills occupied some space. The rural visitor gave the wallet to the negro, who thereupon slipped the bill into Howden's hand. The hand was closed over the bill of large denomination by the negro who assured Howden that no one must see the transaction.

Howden started out of the Station to locate some one with sufficient loose change to break up the bill. As he neared the station door he cast another glance at the man who was about to make him a present of $50. The negro had disappeared.

Seeing this, Howden ventured to take a look at a genuine $100 note. He discovered that he was clasping a genuine bill for $100, payable by the Treasury Department of the Confederate States of America.

Howden was in a panic at once, and ran wildly about the station searching for the negro who had flim-flammed him out of $11. However, the man had disappeared, and he had not been located up to a late hour last night, although the police were on the lookout for him, Howden having reported his loss soon after he discovered it.

GERMAN LINE FORCED BACK

Result of Recent Great Pressure of Picked French Troops

VIGOROUS FIGHTING

Capture Trenches and Position Within Few Miles of German Frontier—Teutons Reinfdrcing

Paris, April 8.—The German line forming the northern side of the St. Mihiel salient has been sent back appreciably by the vigorous pressure exerted by picked French troops in the last two days. East and south of Etain there has been severe fighting as a result of which the French have captured trenches and now occupy positions within a few miles of the German frontier.

The official communique issued tonight noted that the Kaiser has sent regiments of the Prussian Guard, the German corps d'elite, to re-enforce his troops who were driven from Hartmannsweiler Kopf after several weeks fighting and are now making an effort to regain that height, which occupies a dominating position at the gateway of Alsace.

According to the official reports the battle in the Verdun region is assuming tremendous proportions and the struggle there is continuing without cessation day and night.

The official communique issued tonight is as follows.

The weather contiues to be very bad. There has, however, been great activity between the Meus and the Moselle, where we have maintained all the ground gained and realized fresh progress. Near Pareid, east of Verdun, we have taken two lines of trenches.

"BIRD DAY" IN VIRGINIA

In order to awaken an interest in bird study, and especially in the protection of birds, the Governor of Virginia last year issued a proclamation for May 4th, the birthday of John James Audubon, to be observed throughout the State as "Bird Day." Teachers are requested to observe this day by calling to the attention of their pupils the economic value of the birds common to their section, showing the direct value birds are to the farmer and the fruit growers, and to study their nature and habits.

The following suggestions may be helpful in arranging a program for the day:

1. Who was John James Audubon?
2. What national society has done great work for the protection of birds?
3. To what woman philanthropist are the Southern States largely indebted for their Audubon literature?
4. What do you know of the Junior Audubon Society, and for what does it stand?
5. Mention the game birds of Virginia?
6. Give a list of the song birds in your section?
7. Why is the plumage of the female bird not so brilliant as that of the male bird?
8. What birds does not build a nest, but lay eggs in other nests?
9. What is an aigrette, from what bird obtained, and how?
10. Why are birds the farmers' best friends?

Teach the children (to love the birds, not only for their song, but for the reason that birds are so useful to the farmer and to allhumanity, for without them the ravages of insects on fruits, vegetables and all crops would be so great that we would have no crops, and our fair state would become barren and desolate.

The protection of our little feathered friends should demand more attention than it has done in Virginia, and it behooves us to bestir ourselves in their behalf. Many of our sweetest songsters have been well nigh exterminated in some sections by the huntsmna and feather seekers, who have ruthlessly slain them by the thousands.

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria—Happenings in Society.

Mrs. John Hunton Foster opened the festivities of the Easter season on yesterday, with a beautiful card party, given in the assembly room of the Wagar Apartments, in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Edge, of Downingtown, Pa.

Near the quaint, colonial doorway of the old historic room, the charming hostess and her queenly daughter, with Mrs. Carroll Ashby, of Ontario, received their guests. The room was beautifully decorated in yellow jonquils,—the golden color of spring,—while dainty yellow bon-bon baskets adorned the many card tables.

At one of the recessed windows punch was served by Mrs William B. Smoot, assisted by Miss Carrie Stribbling and Miss Nannie Norton. The score was kept by two fair young girls, Miss Isabell Boswell and Miss Cornelia Miller.

The prizes were the exquisite handiwork of the hostess. The first, won by Mrs. Mayo, was a beautiful towel, with filet crochet border. The second prize,a pair of guest towels also done in this work, was won by Mrs. William B. Smoot, and the consolation prize, which fell to Mrs. Wm. J. MRS. BRAGER LOSES SUIT

Jury in Baltimore Instructed to Give Verdict for Defendants. in Contested Will

Under instructions from Judge Duffy, the jury yesterday returned a verdict against Mrs. Albert A. Brager, wife of the department store proprietor, son of the late Joseph Brager and a native of Alexandria, in her suit against certain of her brothers and sisters to recover a balance alleged to be due of her share of the estate of her father, the late Joseph Friedenwald, former persident of the Crown Cork and Seal Company. The case had been on trial in the Superior Court in Baltimore since March 19 last.

In his decision Judge Duffy granted a motion of the attorneys for the defendants and sustained their contention that no evidence had been offered for Mrs. Brager legally sufficient to sustain her contention that she had been deceived, and to entitle her to recover. The motion wac made at the close of the testimony for the plaintiff without any witness having been called for the defense.

An appeal from the decision will be taken by Mrs. Brager to the Court of Appeals. It wa salleged by Mrs. Brager that by deceit and misrepresentations she was induced to sell her share of her father's estate for $120,000. She also alleged that the estate was worth $4,000,000 and her portion should have been 3$50,000.

The defendants were Mrs. Merla Thalheimer, Mrs. Bertha Goldenberg Hiram W. Friedenwald, Benjamin B. Friedenwald and Mrs. Jennie Hecht A similar suit is pending at Towson against her other brothers and sisters, who lives in the county.

SOCIALISTS CRY FOR PEACE

A manifesto signed by Karl Liebknecht, George Ledebour, Otto Ruehle, Franz Mehring, Clara Setkin, Rose Luxembourg and other members of the minority faction of the Social Democratic party in Germany has been sent to [illegible] and France, appealing to [illegible] pendent Socialists of those [illegible] to work up a sentiment for immediate peace. The manifesto says:

"The number of men who have perished through the monster of war on the eastern and western fronts surpasses 1 000,000. The number of wounded is thrice higher. The human mind cannot grasp the sum of misery which these figures represent; it cannot conceive of the sufferings of the millions of human beings whose homes have been devastated by the sinister war god.

"The damage caused by the invasion of Eastern Prussia was estimated in January at over $100,000,000. The figures amount to billions in Belgium. The European war expenditure already exeeds $16,000,000,000. The bill inreases daily and the working classes will have to pay it.

"Germany should be the first to raise the cry of peace. We Independent German Socialists do not want a military peace. We want no annexations, but the political and economic independence of all nations; general disarmament and compulsory arbitration."

A letter accompanying the manifesto says.

"Although placed beneate the iron heel of martial law and unable to express our opinions publily, we can predict surprises in the near future. The opposition to this abominable war is growing ceaselessly in Germany, but effective peace action depends upon the help of our French, English and Belgium comrades."

The above is significant, and proves conculsively that there are many people in Germany are anxious for acessation of the unfortunate war which is appalling the world. Germany has been endeavoring to make neutral nations believe that all people in the Fatherland are perfectedly satisfied with present conditions and clamor for a continuation of hostilities. Occasionally, however, something filters through the censorship which shows the contrary. Not long ago it was learned that placards appeared in certain places in Germany demanding bread or a termination of the war.

MONEY SPENT ON INSURANCE.

It has been computed that the people of this country annually lose $250,000,000, or approx [illegible] $500 a minute, through fires, [illegible] ich are preventable. In Fr[illegible] you have a fire and it damages your neighbor's property, you pay his damages. In Germany, if you have a fire, the first caller is a policeman and he takes you to jail. There you have to prove that you are not responsible, through negligence, or any act, otherwise you have to pay the damages and the cost of the work of the fire department.

There is a growing movement in favor of adopting the European laws here. Their application would undoubtedly result in reducing the high insurance rates, of which there is constant complaint. It is suggested that large sums paid annually for protection against fire in this country could be used to better advantage.

Attempted Suicide.

Danville, Va., April 8.—Edward Irby, a cotton-mill operative of North Danville, after swallowing an ounce of poison, shot himself in the left breast Tuesday. Domestic friction is said to have prompted the man to attempt to take his own life. Doctors say he will recover.

JAPAN MAKES ASSURANCES.

Message of Count Okuma, Mikado's Prime Minister, to America People

New York, April 8—The Independent has received from Count Okuma, the Japanese Minister, the following "Message to the the American people."

"Tokyo, April 3—The uneasiness and suspicion in the United States in connection with Japan's negotiations at Peking are based on misunderstanding and misinformation scattered broadcast by interested mischief makers.

"When the negotiations are disclosed it will be found:

"That Japan has not infringed the rights of other nations.

"That Japan has adhered strictly to the principal of equal opportunity.

"That Japan is not attempting to secure a monopoly over China.

"That Japan is not attempting to create a protectorate over China.

"That Japan is not seeking to secure in China any advantage which does not accord with the Anglo Japanese alliance or with any de treaties or undertaking with the United States.

"We have fully informed the United States and other interested powers as to Japan's purposes.

"We believe that they are satisfied.

"The negotiations between Japan and China are nearing a satisfactory conclusion.

"I am now willing to state publicly through the Independent that Japan is quite confident of the rectitude and good faith of her position.

"Japan is merely seeking to settle outstanding troublesome question in a way looking toward permanent peace and good understandings."

TWO VESSELS SUNK

F. TENNYSON NEELY VISITS HIGH SCHOOL

The Guest of Captain Sweeney—Addresses the High School on life in Europe and Mexico—Mr. Neely will Speak Tonight at Westminister Building for the Benefit of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society.

F. TENNYSON NEELY
World Famed Publisher, Lecturer And Traveler Now in Alexandria.

This morning Mr. F. Tennyson Neely visited the High School as the guest of Superintendent W. H. Sweeney, and addressed all of the children of the school. Mr. Neely spoke of the conditions of the schools in England and on the continent of Europe, especially in the war zone; also regarding the lack of education in Mexico. He stated that in Russia only seven per cent of the entire population of about 200 million people are able to read and write, and that in Mexico the conditions are even worse.

As an additional educational advantage, the Gazette has induced Mr. Neely to add to his war pictures the very wonderful motion pictures of a tour through Yellowstone Park. This means that over two thousand feet of the wonders of our National Park will be shown at each of the three performances at the Opera House on Friday and Saturday nights at 8:15 o'clock, and on Saturday at matinee at 3 o'clock, at which all school children are admitted at five cents each. School teachers free.

Mr. Neely is the son of the well-known preacher and evangelist, the late George Washington Neely, who devoted his life to establishing schools and churches throughout the South.

Wherever he may go it is a rule to invite as his guests the clergy and school teachers and all workers for charity. Invitations have been sent all these in Alexandria including the physicians of the city.

This evening Mr. Neely will take part in the entertainment to be given by the ladies at the Westminster Building for the benefit of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, and he will speak of the charity and missionary work in Mexico. Having spent much time in this revolution-tossed land, Mr. Neely is able to shed much light upon the true conditions.

The Gazette takes pleasure and pride in being able to have shown, before the people of Alexandria such a wonderfully interesting and instructive collection of motion pictures as Mr. Neely will show at his lectures which will only be given at the Opera House. The war pictures are the same as were presented by Mr. Neely at his four days' engagement at the Belasco Theater, Washington, last wek. No person should fail to attend. It is a rare opportunity which should not be permitted to pass.

The admission is the nominal sum of 10 cents and 20 cents. Reserved seats may be secured at Warfield's drug store without extra charge.

GOVERNORS INVITED

Stuart Believes Confederate Reunion Will be Last in Richmond

Richmond, Va., April 8—Invitations are on the way to the Governors of the various Southern States and their staffs from Governor Stuart, of Virginia, asking them to attend what he declares may be the last reunion of the Confederate Veterans in the Confederate capital to be held here beginning June 1. Features of the gathering will include the dedication of the Confederate Memorial Institute and the laying of the cornerstone of a monument to Gen. Stonewall Jackson.

"In all human probability," says the invitation, "this will be the last reunion of Confederate survivors to be held at the capital of the Confederacy. It is, therefore, all the more appropriate and seemly to have gathered here representative officials of all the Southern States as participants in an event which will particularly mark the pride we feel in our heroes living and dead."

SCREWDRIVER IN BRAIN.

Boy Wounded by Tool Hurled By Snowball Victim.

Philadelphia, April 8.—For the second time within the last two days snowballing ended disastrously when, late Monday afternoon, Albert Walls, 13 years old, of Thirtieth and Wharton streets was probably fatally wounded by an infuriated victim of the icy missiles. Harry Carroll, 21 years old, who is charged with throwing a screw-driver at the Walls boy was arrested yesterday. Young Walls is confined to his home with a hole through the base of his brain.

Carroll was repairing his automobile at the corner of Stanley street and Wharton, only a few yards from where two youths were shot last Sunday, following the bombardment of a passer-by with snowballs. As Carroll stooped over, the police were told, several snowballs struck him. Angered, he straightened up, and threatened to have the boys arrested. A jeer greeted him, followed by another snowball thrown from a different direction. Carroll snatched a screwdriver from his repair kit and hurled it at the crowd.

Young Walls tumbled and the pile of snow which had furnished the boys with their ammunition was reddened by a stream of blood that oozed from a wound in his head. The case was not reported to the police until yesterday, when the boy's condition became critical.

WORKMAN ELECTROCUTED.

Danville Man is Killed by Fallen Wire Which he Had Been Sent to Guard.

Danville, Va., April 8.—William H. Mann, aged 55 years, for six years an employee in the municipal power house, was killed Tuesday night when het ouched a power wire carrying 2,300 volts. A big leader cable carrying city current to North Danville broke at the North Main Street crossing, and Mann was instructed to leave the powerhouse and see that none tuoched the wire until a repair gang could be got together. According to witnesses, Mann took the end of the wire and pulled it alongside the curbin, where he put it down. At another place he bent to pick up the wire, his right hand came in contact with an uninsulated portion and he got the full force of the shock. Mann did not die at once living for fifteen minutes. He leaves a wife and several grown children.
